

Did you choose your life before taking birth?

Explore the hidden Journey of the Soul via stories of parents, children, Native peoples, mystics, East-West saints, ancient philosophers, Tibetan Lamas, and Near-Death Experiencers

Cosmic Cradle helps us understand how our souls decide to take birth.

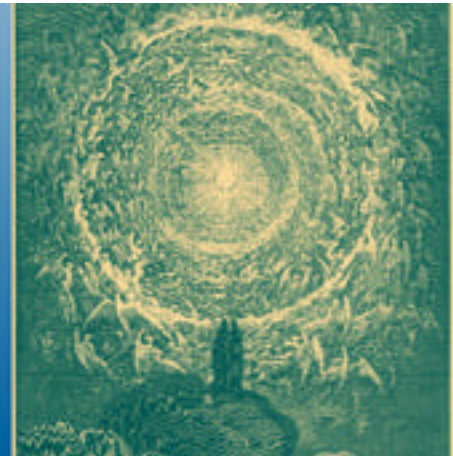

- ◆ Thousands of souls slowly circled Joanna as they shopped around for a mother. (p. 39)
- ◆ Judy's twins chose to go through a miscarriage. (p. 128)
- ◆ Sarah returns to be born after a miscarriage. (p. 105)
- ◆ Plato, the Bible, and Native Americans reveal the Soul's Highway between Heaven and Earth. (p. 353)
- ◆ Before his birth, Glen chose to experience significant suffering, a decision not made by anyone else. Glen sees life as a blessing, and not a curse. (p. 511)
- ◆ Beverly remembers being created as an initial spark from God before ever entering the physical. (p. 633)
- ◆ Lania learns why her mother was abusive. Lania sees her life as her responsibility and that no one forced anything on her (p. 613)
- ◆ DeLynn saw how he had volunteered before birth to experience an incurable genetic disease. (p. 415)
- ◆ Two-year old Tyler informed his mother how he chose her before birth because she would be a good mother. (p. 545)
- ◆ Thunder Cloud trained before birth to be a Native American shaman. He desired rebirth in order to attend to unfinished business.(p. 603)
- ◆ Babies select Australian Aborigine fathers prior to conception and need help finding mothers. (p. 169)

Over 200 Stories
Contemporary Interviews
165 Cultures and Religions
600 Cross Cultural Parallels
1100 Cites, Index, Biblio.

1-800-584-1505
CosmicCradle.com

COSMIC CRADLE

Souls Waiting in the Wings for Birth

Elizabeth and Neil Carman, Ph.D.